

Spicy Cornmeal-Crusted Alaska Salmon

Preparation Time: 5 minutes

Cook Time: 15 minutes

Servings: 4

Ingredients:

1/3 cup medium to coarse-grind cornmeal

1-1/2 to 2 teaspoons favorite spicy seasoning (Cajun, Mexican, Caribbean Jerk, Italian, curry blend, etc.)

1 teaspoon salt

4 skinless Alaska Salmon fillets (4 to 6 oz. each), fresh, thawed or frozen

1 Tablespoon olive, canola, peanut or grapeseed oil

Nonstick cooking spray

Description:

Blend cornmeal, seasoning, and salt in zip-top plastic bag. Rinse Alaska Salmon fillets under cold water, then toss in cornmeal coating.

Heat oil in large nonstick skillet to medium-high heat; add fillets to pan. Cook until browned, about 3 minutes. Spray-coat tops of fillets. Turn salmon over gently and cook an additional 4 minutes.

- Fresh/thawed fish: Check browned fillets for doneness. Cook just until fish is opaque throughout.
- Frozen fish: Preheat oven to 425°F. Transfer browned fillets to baking sheet and cook an additional 6 to 8 minutes. Cook just until fish is opaque throughout.
